Great news - we look forward to having you. Just in case it comes up - we have gone out of our way to ensure that this event will not be an issue for agency staff from a gift/lobby perspective.

We are absolutely still on for the 22nd at 2 PM.

Looking forward to visiting with all of you.

Best -
SB

Hi Shoren:

Received your invite and I plan to attend this, along with Palmer Hough from our office. He will be joining us in our 2:00 meeting that day as well. (I assume we are still on for that?)

Dave Evans is out of the office that day, but Brian Frazer, Erin Flannery, and hopefully Denise Keehner (our office director) will be there with Palmer and me for the 2:00.

Thanks,
Stacie

Friends and colleagues - please join us next week for this event. Feel free to distribute widely.

CELEBRATION OF BRISTOL BAY, ALASKA RECEPTION

Wednesday, September 22nd
5:30 pm - 7:30 pm
The Russell Senate Building Room 188

Kindly RSVP to sbrown@tu.org | 202.674.2380

You are invited to an evening celebrating Bristol Bay, Alaska - our nation's largest and most valuable wild salmon fishery. Please join Alaska Natives, commercial salmon fishermen, business owners, and sportsmen to learn about this irreplaceable resource, the current threats posed by the proposed Pebble mine, and how you can help to protect this crucial renewable resource.

Light hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will be served.

Sponsored by: Trout Unlimited, Curyung Tribal Council, Bristol Bay Regional Seafood Development Association, Natural Resources Defense Council and Alaska Independent Fisherman's Marketing Association.
